Summary Narrative

A male yelled vulgar language after finding the Starbucks had closed early, and the sign clearly stated they were open longer.

The male made comments and gestures intended to incite an immediate breach of the peace towards employees on the sidewalk as others downtown, some left from the Parade of Lights, observed.

The male was also arrested for Public Intoxication.

Narrative

On Friday 11/25/11 at approximately 2235hrs, I, Sgt KW Stack 2787, C310, arrived at 404 Houston St, Starbucks. I parked in front of the business in my marked Police vehicle. I approached the front doors in full uniform.

Several people stood outside, including ARR/Smith, William R WM 06/01/86. Others walked by as the Parade of Lights was finished, bringing a diverse crowd and families to Sundance Square.

I walked up and noticed the store floors had been mopped. One person in the crowd said the store was closed. I reached in front of ARR, who was standing facing the right door, and pulled on the door. It was locked.

Standing next to the ARR I noticed a strong odor of alcoholic beverage on his breath.

A clerk looked at me and shook her head, "No," but all else looked secure inside. I walked back to my car as an unrelated older female made a comment consistent with, "Oh well," then walked north.

Getting in my car I heard ARR saying, in a loud voice, that the sign said the business was open until Midnight. Looking inside, ARR said there was no sign saying Starbucks was closed, pointing again to the sign by moving right and pointing, then moving back in front of the doors. ARR was motioning directly and standing stiffly, staring inside.

Another clerk walked towards the door and sign, and said, "We are closed." ARR said, "Fuck Off!" to the clerk loud enough that I heard it from the street. ARR then cupped his hands over his mouth, and yelled into the crack between the two entry doors, "Fuck This!" again as loud.

As I exited my car, ARR turned his buttocks towards the door and bent over, making another comment directed inside. ARR did not pull his pants down, but he reasonably made the motions as if he had.

ARR's language and gestures were clearly intended to incite an immediate breach of the peace, and I was obligated to prevent any further disorderly conduct by ARR.

FORT WORTH POLICE DEPARTMENTNarrative

Along with ARR's strong odor of alcoholic beverage on his breath, and the loud, aggressive, unreasonable speech, I saw ARR had watery eyes. ARR was a danger to himself or others in a public place due to intoxication.

A female in ARR's party, who were standing by the door with him when I arrived, said ARR, "only had two beers," a comment she made without me asking any questions of her.

I arrested ARR for Public Intoxication - Alcohol, issuing citation G818928 for that offense and Disorderly Conduct -Language.

Officer S Guadarrama 3106, C342, transported ARR to Jail and completed the booking paperwork.
